Any word on this? As much as I like living in my office 18 hours a day, I'd like to see my husband tonight so I need to draft the motion before I leave. Thanks!

Ellie,

Thanks for forwarding those emails. I don't believe that the initial requests satisfied Rule 12.1, which states that the government's request "must state the time, date, and place of the alleged offense." Your most recent email obviously satisfies the Rule 12.1 requirement. As of now, we do not anticipate presenting alibi evidence or witnesses. But to be sure, I would ask that you allow me until tomorrow to confer with Mr. Rouven about the dates and times. I know your motions are due on Friday and I will do my best to let you know as soon as possible. Thanks.

Ben

Dear Jess and Ben,

I have forwarded the May 13 and 31, 2016 demands for alibi notice to you separately from this email. On those dates, the Government made formal demands for notice of an alibi defense under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12.1.

Under the commentary to Rule 12.1, the Government's demand triggered the Defendant's duty to inform the Government of his intention to rely upon the defense of alibi. To date, no response has been received. Once the Government receives a response, then the Government must advise the defendant of the specific time, date, and place at which the offense is alleged to have been committed. Assuming your indication before Calendar Call is sufficient to provide the Government with notice, the Government notifies you that the specific time, date, and place at which the offense is alleged to have been committed is:
